"Never Say Good-Bye"

Berkley Middle School
59 South Main Street
Berkley, Massachusetts 02780

Dear Mom and Dad,

Today is a meaningful day for you and me. It is the culmination of all that you have taught me up to now.

You are preparing me for adulthood, and have done yourself proud. You've given me respect, pride in myself, joy; even sadness and hate. And you have given me the most serious emotion there is - LOVE. Yes, you have done much for me. I have learned from you what life really is, for me and for others.

I know I don't really have to tell you how I feel about you, you know that already. But sometimes, parents are greatly taken for granted and this shouldn't be so. So although I rarely express my true feelings of respect and love for you, I feel now is the opportunity to thank you for being what you are - my parents.

So today, on my graduation, I am asking you to continue to teach me. You've taught me the meaning of love, how to love, and it doesn't end there. We've all grown together, and we still are growing. All I can say now is THANK YOU for being the two wonderful people you are.

LOVE, YOUR CHILD

To the Class of 1988:

Congratulations!

We are proud of our association with you over the past nine years and very optimistic about your future as a high school student.

The next four years are critical in the acquisition of the knowledge which will give you the power to effectively control your destiny and your potential for contribution to our society.

Hard work and extra effort in your curricular and extracurricular activities always has positive payoffs.

Joseph C. Harrington, Ed. D.
Superintendent of Schools

You have built your educational foundation at the Berkley Middle School. I am sure that your past effort, positive attitude, desire to work, and motivation will now pay dividend. Your future, as responsible citizens, depend on your commitment. Strive for excellence.
Congratulations!

Edward G. Canuel
Principal

You are the first class to whom I did not teach science. I missed the opportunity to interact with you in the classroom. I had new responsibilities this year. You will have new responsibilities next year and the years to come. Remember to take full advantage of any new learning opportunities and accept responsibility for your own decisions.

Good Luck. Much success.

"Never Say Goodbye"

Never say goodbye,
hold on to fun and laughter.
We'll enjoy all of this year,
and those that come after.

You can tell all your teachers,
and your best friend.
That you never want the friendship
of eighth grade to end.

And once we realize this,
we'll set our troubles aside.
And head for graduation.
What a wonderful ride!

And though we're all different,
in one way we're the same.
We all can be winners,
destined to fame.

We must keep in touch,
for if we do not -
we'll surely regret it,
once we drift apart.

And one wish I have,
is to follow our theme.
Never Say Goodbye,
how terrific a dream!

BERKLEY JR. HIGH GAZETTE

FINAL EDITION 1986-1987

During the year, many things have taken place, and we have tried to cover most of them. This is our last edition of the Gazette. I'd like to thank Mrs. Morley and all of the other teachers for their support and help. I'd especially like to thank the entire staff for their participation in the newspaper this year.

FIELD TRIP

Boston Museum of Science
Seventh and eighth graders took a field trip to the Museum of Science and Omni Theater. "Exciting, "thrilling", and "breath-taking", were some of the adjectives students used to describe the presentation at Omni Theater. The rest of the Museum was enjoyable also!

NASA PRESENTATION

The purpose of this assembly was to educate students about the space program. We saw a space suit, models of space crafts, and different foods that astronauts eat. It was very well presented, and enjoyable.

"My Best Friend"

The best friend that ever could be,
has fuzzy brown fur and so close to me.
He's always around to lend me an ear,
and where ever I put him he'll always stay there.

His eyes are buttons and so is his nose.
Althought, he looks sad he's really salon blue.
I whisper on him a secret and he doesn't tell.
He doesn't tell, he doesn't complain and he listens so well.

Forever I will love him and keep him so near.
I will never ever leave you, my wonderful TEDDY BEAR.

"Never Say Goodbye"

A friend is someone you like to see;
A person you look forward to seeing.
Some of your friends you like to think about;
Some friends aim to disgust.
But the most important kind of friend,
is the one you can always trust.
When these friends take their leave,
you can't help but sigh,
because a certain part of you feels,
you can NEVER SAY GOODBYE.
